I am looking forward to an amazing year of Club, Community, Commitment, and Cohesiveness. Don't forget the fifth C – Craziness. The Ways and Means team is already hard at work and they are looking forward to two very successful events. I think this is going to be a year filled with opportunities and growth (especially my own personal growth). I am excited for club to welcome so many new members and returning members, support our current members, encourage our inactive members, and initiate prospective members. Through Commitment and Cohesiveness our Club can make a difference in our Community. We will also try to not drive each other Crazy along the way.

Please remember to send me items for the agenda the Sunday before the meetings. I won't have time to add items on the day of the meeting.

See you all on January 11, at the next general meeting.

Thank You

A very special thanks to Kristi, for her continuous efforts and commitment to CHWC. She was devoted two years of service as President and club has benefited greatly from your hard work, Kristi. She has continued to work hard to make sure the 2009 budget is in order. She delivered our donation to Second Harvest Food Bank and she was key in purchasing the new computer for club!

Thank you to my dear friend, Alisha, for the wonderful installation! The giving tree was the perfect touch. Your words summarized exactly what I was hoping for the New Year. Thank you for your friendship and for talking me into club.

- Karri

Karri's theme for her 2010 term is
Club, Community, Commitment, Cohesiveness.

Her color is green and her symbol is a tree.

"We are a club of ladies that strive to serve the community we live in. Our commitment and cohesiveness as an organization bring value and support to our neighbors, our friends and loved ones."

Bring your 2009 books and magazines

We voted at our December dinner/meeting to purchase items for the Marines Recovery Baskets (wounded Marines in the hospital at Camp Pendleton.) Thank you to Cathy, Debbie, & Deb for shopping for the basket supplies.
